

Robert Koelsch, CEO of Advanced Energy Machines, turns on one of his company's zero-emissions refrigerated storage units at the unveiling of California's Clean Off-Road Equipment Voucher Incentive Project, also known as CORE, at a news conference at the Port of San Diego on Friday, Jan. 31, 2020. "California launches $44 million voucher program for clean energy freight equipment".

(Photo by Rob Nikolewski of The San Diego Union-Tribune)